It is ſaid that Lieutenant Colonel William Strode, Colonel of the 62d regiment of foot, has given orders for a ſuperb equeſtrian ſtatue of his late Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, to be caſt in bronze, at his own private expence; for which noble purpoſe, as a ſmall, but perpetual teſtimony of the Colonel's gratitude to ſo excellent a ſoldier, and ſo munificet a patron of military virtue, he has appropriated the ſum of one thouſand guineas.

MAY 2. By accounts from the confines of Poland, we hear that the Can of Tartary, after burning 134 towns and villages in New-Servia, and ruining a great number of Ruſſian magazines, retired, with an immenſe booty, to Bender, at the head of 70,000 of his own troops, and 10,000 Sophis. His eldeſt ſon, with an army little inferior to the above, has ravaged the Ruſſian territories to the north of Cuban, and has carried off a great quantity of valuable commodities. He was attacked by a body of Ruſſians near Pultowa, but neither party had any reaſon to boaſt of the victory, as the loſs was nearly equal on both ſides. Another corps of Tartars, amounting to 47,000 men, are directly to undertake an expedition on the banks of the Wolga; for which purpoſe a great number of boats have been conſtructed.

Letters from Genoa, dated April 4, declare, that notwithſtanding it was reported that the departure of Count Vaux had been countermanded, that officer ſailed from Toulon the 25th of laſt month, on board a French frigate, for Baſtia, with a great number of tranſports, containing fourteen battalions of freſh troops. There are no leſs than fifteen battalions ſtationed along the ſea-coaſt of Provence, ready to embark on the firſt notice for Corſica, if their aſſiſtance ſhould be judged neceſſary.

A letter from Smyrna mentions the revolution that happened at Grand Cairo, in January laſt, to have been occaſioned by the great oppreſſions of the people in power, particularly the officers of the cuſtoms, from whom Hali, the principal of the malecontents, after depoſing the Pacha, exacted 150 purſes, each containing 500 piaſtres; Mellam Juſuf Levi, Farmer-General of the cuſtoms, was alſo put to death by his order.

MAY 3. Yeſterday about three hundred gentlemen of the livery of London met at the half-moon tavern, Cheapſide, when Edward Bond, Eſq; was choſen chairman. A requeſt for a common-hall was agreed to, and immediately ſigned. About 12 o'clock, the chairman, attended by the whole meeting, waited on the Lord Mayor at the manſion-houſe, to requeſt his Lordſhip to call as ſoon as poſſible, a common-hall, in order to take the ſenſe of the livery of London, on the meaſures proper to be purſued by them under the preſent moſt alarming ſituation of affairs.—His Lordſhip received them with great politeneſs; obſerved that the requeſt of ſo reſpectable a part of the livery of London demanded his moſt ſerious attention; and that though there might be no precedent to juſtify him in complying with this requeſt of the liverymen, under their preſent circumſtances, would not juſtify the peculiarity of the meaſure. His Lordſhip reſolved to take the opinion of the common council on this important point; and declared, that their determination would be of great weight with him; and it is ſaid, that a common council will be ſummoned on Friday next.

We have authority to aſſure the public, that by the advices received from India, by the ſhip Valentine, it appears, that affairs in Bengal were nearly in the ſame ſtate, as when the former letters were received from thence, and that by the advices from Madraſs, there is great reaſon to believe, that the war in the Carnatic, would be ſoon brought to a criſis, and that hitherto, the operations of the armies under General Smith, and Colonel Wood, have been ſucceſsfully conducted againſt Hyder Ally.

A letter from Conſtantinople, ſays, "Advice being received that a neighbouring power to Poland had aſſembled an army of 40,000 men upon the frontiers, the Porte demanded of the miniſter from that crown, with what view his court had paſſed that army? and as he has not given ſatisfaction on the ſubject, it is ſignified to him that he muſt give a poſitive anſwer, ſince it greatly behoves the Grand Signor to know what to do in that reſpect."

Immediately after, the Governor of the town ſent word to Sir John Dick, his Majeſty's conſul, that his Imperial Majeſty and the Great Duke intended, as ſoon as they had dined, to go on board his Majeſty's frigates the Montreal, Capt. Coſby, and the Carysfort, Capt. Vandeput, which were then in the roads; of which the conſul informed the commanders, and ſoon after went himſelf on board the Montreal, which Capt. Coſby had got under ſail, and was ſtanding cloſe in towards the ſhore. His Imperial Majeſty and the Great Duke were conducted in barges on board the Montreal. They were ſaluted by each of the frigates with twenty-one guns, as well on their going on board, as at their return. They continued on board the Montreal two hours, during which time ſhe kept under ſail. On paſſing the Carysfort, ſhe likewiſe got under ſail, and accompanied the Montreal. The Emperor and the Great Duke both expreſſed great ſatisfaction. The Great Duke did Sir John Dick the honour to preſent him to the Emperor; and the next morning Sir John had the honour to preſent Capt. Coſby, and Capt. Vandeput to his Imperial Majeſty.*

CHARLES-TOWN, JULY 4.

ON Monday the 26th ult. the Honourable the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province met here, agreeable to his Excellency's Proclamation, when they unanimouſly made Choice of the Honourable PETER MANIGAULT, Eſq; to be their Speaker, and the next Day they preſented him to his Excellency the Governor, who was pleaſed to approve of their Choice; and then opened the Seſſion with the following SPEECH, viz.

Honourable Gentlemen,

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly,

HIS Majeſty having been pleaſed to ſignify to me, that it is not his Intention that this Province, in general, ſhould any longer ſuffer, on account of the intemperate Reſolutions of the late Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, by a Diſcontinuance of the Meeting of their Repreſentatives, I have taken the earlieſt Opportunity to call you together for the neceſſary Diſpatch of the Public Buſineſs, which I truſt you will proceed upon with Prudence, Unanimity, and Expedition.

Although there are ſeveral Matters that well deſerve your ſerious Conſideration, I cannot help mentioning to you, the Grievances that your Fellow-Subjects ſuffer in the interior Parts of this Province, from the Want of an equal Diſtribution of Juſtice, as a Matter that claims your immediate Attention and Regard; as I have lately been an Eye-Witneſs to the Diſtreſſes they labour under, I earneſtly recommend to you, to purſue ſuch Meaſures as will tend to relieve them; and in order to eaſe your Deliberations on this Point, I will lay before you Copies of a Report of the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, on the Bill for eſtabliſhing Circuit Courts in this Province, paſſed ſome Time ſince, wherein you will ſee ſtated the Reaſons that operated againſt that Act's Obtaining the Royal Approbation.

I recommend to you to conſider of ſome Regulations for carrying on the Trade between this Province and the Indians, it having been under no Regulations for theſe ſix Months paſt; and ſome Diſturbances have already happened between them and the Traders, which, if not attended to, in Time, may be productive of dangerous Conſequences.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly,

I ſhall order the Public Accounts to be laid before you, and deſire that you will make Proviſion for their Diſcharge.

Honourable Gentlemen,

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

The growing Intereſt of this Province, cannot fail to raiſe the moſt pleaſing Reflections in the Breaſt of every Well-Wiſher to its Proſperity, and the late liberal Bounty granted by Parliament on the Importation of Silk from the Colonies, as it flatters us with the Hopes of adding another valuable Staple to your Produce, it cannot fail to add to the Gratitude, the many and great Benefactions, you have received from your Mother Country, moſt juſtly deſerves. Let it be your Care to improve the Advantages you enjoy, and in every Meaſure calculated to promote the true Welfare and Happineſs of the Province, you may rely on my Concurrence and Support.

27th June, 1769. C. G. MONTAGU.

The humble ADDRESS of his Majeſty's Council,

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of this Province, met in General Aſſembly, return our Thanks to your Excellency, for your Speech delivered Yeſterday to both Houſes.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that nothing can give us a more ſenſible Satisfaction, than to have it ſoon in our Power to give that Redreſs to the Inhabitants of the back Parts of this Province, which they ſo much ſtand in need on, by doing all that is in our Power to promote the paſſing ſuch Laws as may be conducive to that Purpoſe.

As the putting the Indian Trade under a proper Regulation, may be of the greateſt Conſequence to this Province, your Excellency may depend upon our utmoſt Endeavours towards the paſſing of ſuch Laws as may tend to keep up a good Harmony betwixt the Indians and us.

The Bounty granted on the Importation of Silks from the Colonies to Great-Britain, cannot fail of giving us great Pleaſure, as it will probably be of great Service both to the Mother-Country and the Colonies: To the Mother-Country, by keeping that Caſh among her own Subjects, that would otherwiſe go to Foreigners; and to the Colonies, by giving them another ſtaple Commodity.

We do not in the leaſt doubt your Excellency's Inclination to do every Thing that lays in your Power for the Good of the Province; and we hope your Excellency will do us the Juſtice to believe, that we ſhall always with the greateſt Pleaſure join our Endeavours with your Excellency for that good Purpoſe.

By Order of the Houſe,

OTHNIEL BEALE.

In the Upper-Houſe of Aſſembly, the 28th Day of June, 1769.

[We have not been able to procure his Excellency's Anſwer to the above Addreſs.]

To his Excellency the Right Honourable CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The humble ADDRESS of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of the Province of South-Carolina, beg Leave to return your Excellency our Thanks for your Speech, delivered in general Aſſembly, on Tueſday laſt, particularly for the Aſſurances there given us, of your Excellency's Concurrence and Support in every Meaſure calculated to promote the true Welfare and Happineſs of the Province.

We are extremely concerned, that the neceſſary and conſtitutional Reſolutions of the late Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, ſhould have given ſuch Offence to Government, as to occaſion the late long Diſcontinuance of the ſitting and holding of the General Aſſembly, when the Circumſtances of the Province abſolutely required their meeting, but more eſpecially when we conſider that the ſaid Diſcontinuance was extended beyond the Time expreſsly limited, both by the Election-Law, paſſed in the Year 1721, and by conſtant Uſage and Cuſtom from that Time.

As we are willing to believe, that your Excellency did not mean by this Step to infringe a Right of the People of this Province, which we their Repreſentatives can upon no Conſideration give up; ſo we hope, that what has been done on this Occaſion, will neither be drawn into Precedent, or repeated for the future.

Your Excellency may depend upon our proceeding on the Buſineſs recommended to us, with the utmoſt Diligence; though we diſpair of carrying on the ſame with greater Temper, Prudence, Unanimity, or Expedition, than the laſt Houſe ſeemed inclined to have done.

We are ſenſibly affected with the Diſtreſſes of our Fellow-Subjects in the back Settlements, for want of that ſpeedy and eaſy Acceſs to Juſtice, which they have a Right to under the Britiſh Conſtitution: Happy are we, that their Diſtreſſes cannot be imputed to the Repreſentatives of the People, who have been always ready to hear their Complaints, and to redreſs their Grievances; and who, notwithſtanding the little Succeſs their repeated Attempts have been attended with, will, with Alacrity, reſume the Conſideration of that Matter, as well as of the Regulations neceſſary for conducting the Indian Trade.

We aſſure your Excellency, that we will make ample and ſpeedy Proviſion for Payment of the Public Debts.

We are truly ſenſible of, and grateful for all the Favours conferred on us by the Mother-Country; and we ſincerely wiſh the Bounty lately granted on Silk, may operate ſo as to produce ſuch a Quantity of that Commodity, as may be beneficial to this Colony, and may prevent Great-Britain being obliged to ſeek a precarious Supply of that neceſſary Article of her Manufactures from Foreigners.

By Order of the Houſe,

P. MANIGAULT, Speaker.

In the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, the 1ſt Day of July, 1769.

To which Addreſs his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer:

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly,

I return you my Thanks for this your Addreſs, and can aſſure you, it was never my Intention to infringe any Rights of the People, particularly when they have the Sanction of Law.

C. G. MONTAGU.

July 1, 1769.

We hear, that Writs are iſſued, for electing new Members of the preſent Aſſembly, in the Room of the following Gentlemen, viz.
